FTC Files Case Against Stalking Apps

The FTC has announced it has filed a complaint barring the developers of three "stalking" apps from selling apps that monitor consumers' mobile devices unless they take certain steps to ensure the apps will only be used for legitimate purposes. The settlement resolves allegations that these apps compromised the privacy and security of the consumer devices on which they were installed. Andrew Smith, Director of the Commission's Bureau of Consumer Protection, said "This is our first action against a so-called 'stalking app.' "

The Federal Housing Finance Agency has released a new Strategic Plan for the conservatorships of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac and a new 2020 Scorecard for Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, and Common Securitization Solutions. The Strategic Plan provides a framework for how FHFA will guide Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac to fulfill their statutory missions, focus on safety and soundness, and prepare for a responsible end to the conservatorships. The Scorecard aligns the Strategic Plan with the Enterprises' tactical priorities and operations, serving as an essential tool to hold the Enterprises accountable for the effective implementation of the Strategic Plan.

Deadline Approaching: Comment Call for CFPB Tech Sprints RFI

The CFPB is tasked with facilitating innovation in the consumer financial services market as part of its statutory mission. In fulfilling this objective, the Bureau has sought to strengthen its collaboration with stakeholders in order to develop solutions to shared problems.

The Bureau is currently exploring the use of Tech Sprints as a model for collaborative innovation. Tech Sprints gather regulators, technologists, financial institutions, and subject matter experts from key stakeholders for several days to work together to develop innovative solutions to clearly-identified challenges. These initiatives have been used by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) in the United Kingdom and several U.S. regulators, including the Census Bureau and Department of Health and Human Services. Here is detailed information on this initiative and how to comment.
