Bureau releases report on servicemember complaints

The CFPB has posted a Bureau Blog entry announcing the release of the sixth Annual Report from the Bureau's Office of Servicemember Affairs (OSA) highlighting issues and emerging trends facing servicemembers, veterans, and military families. The annual review allows the CFPB to highlight and address critical issues and emerging trends facing the military community and informs the Bureau's efforts to protect military consumers.

The OSA provides service to the military community by highlighting issues like abuses of the military allotment system, aggressive marketing of refinance offers to veteran homeowners, and full explanations of servicemembers' rights under the Servicemember Civil Relief Act (SCRA). This year's Annual Report describes emerging servicemember issues in the financial marketplace such as:

- Medical, telecommunications and VA debts on servicemembers' credit reports
- Student loan servicing obstacles
- Automobile add-on products in the car buying process

In this video, League InfoSight CEO Glory LeDu talks about the highlights from the 4th Quarter of 2018 and the 1st Quarter of 2019.

When S.2155, the Economic Growth, Regulatory Relief, and Consumer Protection Act, passed in 2018 there was a lot to understand! Glory LeDu, League InfoSight CEO, provides Part 1 in

- Refunds should only be directly deposited into accounts that are in the taxpayer's own name, their spouse's name, or both if it's a joint account.
- Refunds should not be direct deposited into an account in a return preparer's name.

Are your CDD Policies Ready for Your Next Exam?

Last August, NCUA issued Supervisory Letter \(SL No. 18-01\) to address credit union's compliance with the new BSA Customer Due Diligence and Beneficial Ownership Rules. With this letter, NCUA stated that credit unions could expect that "field staff would not identify non-compliance as a significant BSA violation, as long as credit unions were making a good faith effort to comply with the new rules." Credit unions were to expect this reprieve through the end of 2018.

Well, we are now into 2019, and NCUA has listed "in-depth reviews of BSA/AML policies and procedures and assessing compliance with the customer due diligence regulation" as one of the agency's supervisory priorities for this year.

As you prepare for your next exam, some items you should consider include:

- Does your written BSA compliance program include Customer Due Diligence and Beneficial Ownership Identification and Verification?
- Have you established an adequate Customer (member) Due Diligence (CDD) Program?
- Does your CU have effective procedures for developing member risk profiles that identify the specific risks of individual members or categories of members?
- Are your risk-based CDD policies, procedures, and processes commensurate with your credit union's BSA/AML risk profile, with increased focus on higher risk members?
- Do your procedures include identifying members that may pose a higher risk for money laundering or terrorist financing and whether and/or when, on the basis of risk, it is appropriate to obtain and review additional member information?
